

IMMEDIATE

22nd December 2008

PRESS RELEASE

OSRL/EARL renames company to Oil Spill Response

Oil Spill Response & East Asia Response Limited, the world's largest international oil spill response organisation, is pleased to announce its new registered name: Oil Spill Response Limited. Our trading name will be Oil Spill Response to effectively reflect what we do.

Our new logo has been designed not only to embody the industry heritage of which we are justifiably proud, but more importantly, to emphasise our commitment to safeguarding the environment and also to signify the fresh clear-sighted approach of a forward thinking organisation that has continuously evolved to meet the changing needs of its customers.

Chief Executive, Archie Smith, commented on the name change, “We have a new name which is highly representative of what we do and we continue to stay true to our mission of providing resources to respond to oil spills efficiently and effectively anywhere in the world.”

-END-

About Oil Spill Response Limited

<http://www.oilspillresponse.com>

An industry-owned emergency response organisation, Oil Spill Response has during the last 25 years attended nearly every major global oil spill and has been involved in numerous other incidents of a varied nature, evidencing the company’s profile as a world leader in this field. Its portfolio provides a “one-stop shop” for oil spill response and preparedness services which include training, consultancy and technical advice, the full benefits of which are available via membership subscriptions. Oil Spill Response also enjoys significant rapport with leading environmental and marine organisations and has a major presence at international conferences and events in the spill response arena.

If you would like more information, please contact:

Sharon Koh, Membership & Communications Manager
Oil Spill Response Limited
+65 6266 1566
sharonkoh@oilspillresponse.com