

OIL SPILL MANAGEMENT - IMO LEVEL 3

29 June - 2 July 2009

To provide senior managers and government administrators with an overview of oil spill response, preparedness planning, and management issues.

Course Code

UMAN83

Location

Southampton

Member

£1,320

Non-Member

£1,870

You will be able to...

- ◆ Understand what constitutes an effective response organisation
- ◆ Understand the consequences of oil spills
- ◆ Interpret key issues in relation to liability for claims and compensation
- ◆ Understand the operational limitations of response strategies employed during oil spill incidents
- ◆ Understand the roles and interfaces between Government agencies and the industry
- ◆ Understand the legal framework and international conventions
- ◆ Identify response options and resource requirements
- ◆ Terminate a response
- ◆ Know the importance of an Oil Spill Contingency Plan
- ◆ Protect your people in an oil spill response
- ◆ Perform the role of Incident Commander

Topics covered

- ◆ Fates and effects of spilled oil
- ◆ Contingency planning
- ◆ Managing the media
- ◆ International co-operation
- ◆ Liability, compensation and insurance
- ◆ Response policy and planning
- ◆ Health and safety management
- ◆ Response options
- ◆ Termination of response
- ◆ Environmental impacts
- ◆ Spill management

Who should attend?

- ◆ Managers and administrators who have overall responsibility for ensuring effective command and control of an oil spill response effort
- ◆ Senior officials from government agencies involved in oil spill response (environment, coast guard, navy, army, finance, etc.)
- ◆ Senior managers and administrators who have overall responsibility for crisis management in oil spill response
- ◆ Staff who would be responsible for liaising with external agencies at a corporate level

Other available dates in 2009

Course Code	Dates	Location
UMAN84	21 - 23 July	Atyrau, Kazakstan
UMAN85	28 Sept - 1 Oct	Southampton
UMAN86	20 - 22 Oct	Libreville, Gabon
UMAN87	7 - 10 December	Southampton

For course bookings, please contact Ms. Chris Carter at:

Tel: +44 (0)23 8033 1551

Fax: +44 (0)23 8033 1972

Email: training_uk@oilspillresponse.com or visit our website: www.oilspillresponse.com