

Shoreline Site Supervisor (IMO Level 1 Equivalent)

MCA|3/3P IMO|1
Equivalent

Overcome challenges by acquiring knowledge of organising your response team in a safe manner whilst minimising damage to the environment by using the right strategies and equipment to make the response effective and efficient.

This is an IMO Level 1 standard course certified by the UK Maritime and Coastguard Agency. See our Standards page for more information.

NEXT COURSE IN
Loyang, Singapore
03-05

November 2020

Member Rate: 1600 USD

Non-Member: 1900 USD

Please contact
Marketing & Communications for enquiries
myosri@oilspillresponse.com

Course Programme

Day 1

- Fate and effects of marine oil spills
- Oil weathering exercise
- Shoreline environmental considerations
- Environmental choices exercise
- Contingency planning
- Quantification exercise
- Equipment overview and tour of Tier 3 stockpile
- Containment and protection
- Booming strategies exercise

Day 2

- Recovery devices
- Hazards to responders
- Safety exercise
- 3-stage shoreline clean-up assessment and site set-up
- Practical exercise
- Management structure and daily tasks
- Briefings and communications and Log keeping

Day 3

- Waste management, disposal and hierarchy
- Case history, site survey and practical deployment exercise

What will I learn?

This course will give you the knowledge and understanding in the following areas:

- awareness of site assessment and set-up, shoreline types, environmental issues, response strategies, equipment and site waste management
- hands-on equipment experience to:
 - organize the resources safely and efficiently at the spill site
 - fully utilise the resources available on a site effectively.

Course Structure

Classroom	65%
Presentations	35%
Group Tasks	30%
Practical	35%
Hands-on exercises	35%